There is a $30 late charge/bounced check bank fee.

Registration Fees: After-School Registration is for the entire year. You may sign up for new classes each semester, but you do not have to reregister or pay another registration fee. For classes with an "Extra Fee," the nonrefundable fee must be paid when registering.

Cancelled Classes: If a class is cancelled for the day due to teacher illness or other circumstance, students attend a different class that day. We do not guarantee every session or give refunds for cancellations. If a class does not receive enough enrollment, it will be cancelled and your child will be placed in an alternate based on your other choices.

Dismissal: Children must be picked up by 5:50pm or you will be charged a late pickup fee. You are welcome to pick up your child at any time. However, we request that you do not pick up during club sessions to avoid disrupting the activities.

FAQ Manhattan Youth After-School Programs

Manhattan Youth After-School Programs operate onsite at P.S. 234, 89, 150, 276, 397 and the Downtown Community Center. Each site has a separate activity schedule, and not all activities are offered at every school. If you have specific questions about programming that are not addressed below, please feel free to contact the after-school director, Theseus Roche, at theseus@manhattanyouth.org. To register for the after-school program, pick up an after-school application at your child's school, at the Downtown Community Center, or online at www.manhattanyouth.org.

What happens each day in the after-school program?

After-School care begins when the regular school day ends. Manhattan Youth staff members accept the children directly from their classroom teachers and bring them to their meeting places. Every child receives snack – usually consisting of apples, bananas, and pretzel rods. We separate the children into groups and our club teachers pick them up to escort them to an activity room, along with one of our counselors.

After arrival and snack, the children participate in one of our “clubs”, which are the activities that you select on the registration form. These classes typically last for an hour and fifteen minutes, after which the club teachers and counselors escort the children back to their meeting places, where they break up into different groupings for what we refer to as “choice” or “variety” time, in one of our open play spaces, schoolyards, cafeterias or gyms. Activities during the second part of the afternoon are organized and supervised by our counselors, and include sports, games, arts & crafts and homework help, depending on the age group.

Where does the after-school program take place?

After-school activities usually take place onsite at the same school that the child attends during the day. Some exceptions to this may be if the child attends one of our Community Center activities, including swimming, ceramics, circus, filmmaking, music production and others. The Downtown Community Center is located at 120 Warren Street between Greenwich and West Streets, adjacent to P.S. 234, across the street from P.S. 89, and two blocks from P.S. 150. Children attending community center activities are escorted there from their schools by Manhattan Youth staff. If your child attends a community center activity, you must pick him or her up at the Downtown Community Center on that day.

How does my child get to the after-school program? Do I have to pick him/her up at school dismissal to bring him/her there?

Children enrolled in the after-school program are dismissed directly to Manhattan Youth staff by their classroom teachers at the end of the school day. There is no need to pick up your child before after-school. Please remember to let your child's classroom teacher know which days he or she will be attending the Manhattan Youth After-School Program.

When does the after-school program take place?

The Manhattan Youth After-School Program is open from school dismissal until 5:50pm almost every day that school is in session. We are closed on the first two days of school in September and the last day of school in June. Otherwise, we follow the regular public school calendar. If school is open, after-school is open. If school is closed, we're closed. If school is cancelled due to an emergency situation, so are our after-school programs. However, if the Department of Education cancels its extended day program in the middle of the day due to weather conditions, our staff will still be on hand to run programming until all parents can arrive to pick up their children.

What time should I pick up my child?

The after-school program ends at 5:50pm every day. Club activities run until 4:40. The best time to pick up is between 5:00pm and 5:50pm so as not to interrupt club activities. Families who do not pick up their children by 5:50pm will receive late charges.

Is there after-school every day that school is in session?

With the exception of the first two days of school in September and the last day of school in June, our programs are open every day that school is open.

Is there after-school on half days?

If school is open, after-school is open, including half days. On half days, our staff are present at school dismissal (usually around noon) to run special activities with the children until 3:30pm, when normal after-school programming resumes. We recommend that parents who do not need the childcare on those days pick up their children at noon. These are long days, and our program does not have access to most of the school facilities, particularly during parent/teacher conferences. Students who are not enrolled in the program for a day on which a half day occurs are not permitted to attend as an “extra day.”

Is there after-school during school holidays?

The after-school program is not open during holidays or DOE school closing days, but we do offer a series of “Vacation Camps” during Winter Recess (December), Midwinter Recess (February) and Spring Break (April). These camps are not included in after-school tuition. For more information, please visit us online at www.manhattanyouth.org.

FAQ Manhattan Youth After-School Programs

If the school is closed for a snow day, but the weather isn't that bad, is there after-school?

If the DOE closes school for the day, after-school is closed. If school is open during the day, after-school is open, even if the DOH cancels its afternoon activities.

The after-school class I selected ends at 4:40. What does my child do after that?

After 4:40, club teachers and counselors escort the children back to their meeting places, where they break up into different groupings for what we refer to as "choice" or "variety" time, in one of our open play spaces, schoolyards, cafeterias or gyms. Activities during the second part of the afternoon are organized and supervised by our counselors, and include sports, games, arts & crafts and homework help, depending on the age group.

Who will be caring for my child after school?

Our after-school staff is made up of a combination of experienced child-care program directors, classroom teachers, coaches, teaching artists, activity specialists and counselors, several of whom work at each school during the school day. Many of our teachers and staff have been with us for several years.

What are some of the after-school activities my child can participate in?

Each of our after-school sites offers a slightly different menu of activities. It is our intention to offer each age group a selection of athletic, creative and intellectually engaging activities every day. Please view your child's school's after-school application page online for a daily schedule of activities.

Who can enroll in the after-school program?

To enroll in one of our school-based after-school programs, a child must already be enrolled in the school of the program they wish to attend. Children from any school, public or private, are welcome to register for activities that take place at the Downtown Community Center. (A parent or caregiver must escort the child from his or her school.) For a listing of activities available to the general community, please look at the Downtown Community Center catalog.

Who needs the after-school program?

Our after-school programs exist primarily to assist working parents with their child-care needs. We strive to provide a safe and enriching environment for all of our children and staff to interact in. Some people choose to take advantage of the variety of enriching "clubs" offered even though they may have other means of basic child-care available. We welcome parents and children with a variety of needs in our programs, and remind everyone that the enriching "clubs" are a secondary priority to the care and safety of all program participants.

How many days per week should I enroll my kindergartener?

Every child is different. Some children entering kindergarten have been in preschool for three years, are almost six years old, and crave activity with their peers every afternoon. Other children are only four years old, and will be away from parents or one-on-one babysitting for the first time in their lives, and need to ease into the school routine. Kindergarteners generally become accustomed to after-school very quickly, and enjoy the different types of activities offered after 3pm. Many of our kindergarteners attend the program up to five days per week.

Some months have fewer school days than others. Is the tuition prorated for shorter months?

For the convenience of parents and families, we split the after-school tuition into ten equal payments, for which we invoice monthly. Your bill will be the same every month, no matter how long or short the month is.

My child was sick last week. Can I schedule a makeup after-school class?

We do not reschedule classes.

What do I do if I need emergency childcare on a day that my child is not enrolled in the after-school program?

If you are enrolled in the after-school program, and in an emergency you need childcare on a day during which your child is not normally enrolled, you can call our office at (212) 766-1104 x227 to request an extra day for a fee of $40.
