

Manhattan Youth's Downtown Day Camp is seeking an experienced art teacher to work with 4th – 8th grade groups of approximately 25 campers each this summer.

If interviewed and subsequently hired, candidates must also be available to attend our three staff orientation sessions:

Wednesday, May 31st: 6:30-9:00pm

Thursday, June 1st: 6:30-9:00pm

Saturday, June 10th: 10:00am-6:00pm

Summer Camp Work Dates (you must be available for all of these dates):

Monday - Friday, 9am - 5pm - beginning Thursday, June 29th (yes, camp starts on a Thursday), through Friday, August 11th. We are closed Tuesday, July 4th.

Qualifications:

Full-time experience teaching art to a similar age group or equivalent.

Can order and manage supplies for a 6 week curriculum, as well as successfully manage an art room and supervise counselor assistants.

Have experience successfully teaching groups of approximately 25 children at a time.

Has a very positive teaching style (encouraging, motivating, and being a role model for the campers and staff).

Is very open-minded and responds well to supervision from other camp leaders.

Has positive group management skills, as opposed to simply "repeating directions."

Knows how to positively motivate groups of children and counselors.

Works very well in a fast-paced, busy environment.
